is a necessity in this country. Better have us issue you a policy before the next blow rather than be sorry after it.

C. N. Harrison & Co.Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause break-downs. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c at all druggists.

NOT SURPRISED

Geraldine—Pa has forbidden you the house.
Gerald—Well, I never expected to get it.

He Saved His Leg.

"All thought I'd lose my leg," writes J. A. Swensen, of Watertown, Wis., "Ten years of eczema, that 15 doctors could not cure, had at last laid me up. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it, sound and well." Infallible for skin eruptions, eczema, salt rheum, boils, fever sores, burns, scalds, cuts and piles. 25c at all druggists.

HUMOROUS QUIPSSong of the Skirt.

With fingers weary and worn,
With eyelids heavy and red,
A woman sat in a five room flat,
A-plying her needle and thread,
Stitch, stitch, stitch,
In silence and solitude began,
She sings to the husband who isn't near,
The song of the homemaker's skirt.

"Work, work, work!
Till I feel like I could die."
Work, work, work!
I'm just a fool to try,
If I had a model to fit it on,
It wouldn't be so bad,
But trying to fit it on oneself,
Enough to drive one mad.

"Work, work, work!
Oh, do hand me a pin!
And now I've got it basted up,
And seams all taken in,
It's miles too big around the waist,
The gores are all awry;
I never can sit down in it,
I wish that I could die!"

"Work, work, work!
My labor never flags,
And what are its wages? No style at all,
And a skirt that always sags,
Too short in front, too long behind,
And bunched round the waist,
Till the heart is sick and the brain benumbed,
As well as the weary hand."

Oh, men with wives who sew,
Each one his fate deserves,
If home's an endless sewing floor,
That gets upon your nerves,
Pay, pay, pay!
A few dressmaking bills,
If you'd escape the scissors and tape,
And sundry sewing tips,
—Rochester Evening Times.
